Experience

Contributor
GirlScript Summer of Code 2024 - Extended October - November 2024

Successfully implemented AI-powered features, enhancing the application's capabilities and user experience. Additionally, I created visually appealing brand identities that effectively communicated the project's values and goals, aligning with the overall design aesthetic.

Student Coordinator
Tech Mahindra Job Fair September 2024

Served as a student coordinator at Tech Mahindra's college job fair, efficiently managing applicant registration, batching, and token distribution while coordinating with the team for a smooth recruitment process with 500+ registrations.

Projects

RoadMap Generator

Developed a full-stack AI-powered roadmap generator using React and Cohere API, allowing users to input skills and receive interactive learning roadmaps. Includes note-taking and PDF export features, showcasing expertise in frontend, backend, and AI integration.

PeriodPal

Developed a React-based application to calculate and track menstrual cycles and fertile windows, enhancing user awareness and family planning. This project demonstrates expertise in React and front-end development.

Budget Manager

Developed a Streamlit-based budget management tool utilizing machine learning models for anomaly detection, future expense prediction, and saving opportunities. This project highlights skills in Python, ML, and financial analysis.
